

Affidavit Regarding 2013 D.D. Bailey Fraud, Original Loan

I, Richard G. Strmiska, also known as Richard the Living Strmiska, a living man standing under Common Law and Law of the Land, do hereby swear and affirm the following: 1. In 2013, a promissory note and deed of trust were executed concerning my property, with "D.D. Bailey" listed as the notary. 2. Upon diligent search of the official notary registries of California and Florida, no record exists of any commissioned notary under the name "D.D. Bailey," in 2013 or at any other time. 3. Multiple documents bearing the name "D.D. Bailey" show inconsistent signatures. On the same date, two separate documents were notarized with visibly different signatures attributed to "D.D. Bailey." A true and lawful notary maintains a consistent signature. The contradictions constitute forgery. 4. A non-existent notary cannot lawfully witness, seal, or authenticate an instrument. Thus, the notarization on the 2013 loan documents is fraudulent and void ab initio. 5. Fraud vitiates everything it touches. Any claim derived from the 2013 promissory note and deed of trust is therefore fraudulent and without lawful standing. I declare under penalty of perjury, without the United States, under Common Law jurisdiction, that the foregoing is true, correct, and complete. _____
